Cooperation Agreement between Hatch CoLab and Bio4Dreams

The Agreement on Cooperation between Hatch CoLab and Bio4Dreams aims at scouting, boosting, developing, and funding projects and startups in Life Sciences.

Specifically, the Parties undertake to mutually exchange:

- startups and entrepreneurial projects and related investment opportunities arising from their network, concerning healthcare, medical devices, biopharmaceutical area and drugs;
- public and private grant opportunities, with the possibility of participating jointly or mutually supported by the other party.

"This agreement represents an important step in Bio4Dreams' internationalization strategy because it allows us to broaden our network also towards the Swiss ecosystem thanks to a first-level innovation player of the territory."

Marco Gili, Head of General Affairs at Bio4Dreams

"As part of Hatch CoLab strategy, it is crucial for us to partner with selected organizations with a deep understanding of selected markets and domains, and this partnership allows us to be even more effective in supporting our outstanding Ventures in Life Sciences, which are shaping new solutions and ways to create Impact and help Humanity."

Andrea Monti, Director at Hatch CoLab

Bio4Dreams S.p.A. is an entirely privately funded certified incubator fully dedicated to very early stage innovative startups in Life Sciences. The company is focused on value creation starting from scientifically innovative entrepreneurial ideas that could improve people's quality of life, with the support of a broad and established network of national and international partners from the research, finance, and enterprise world.

Hatch CoLab is a foundation pioneering a new approach to incubation and acceleration programs, with the aim of empowering entrepreneurs to build Impact Tech Ventures that solve Humanity's Grand Challenges and drive sustainable change. Thanks to its team of experts, Hatch CoLab provides not only support and training to this brave category of entrepreneurs (named "hatcher") but also networking services and spaces dedicated to businesses' growth.
