Partnership between LivaNova and Bio4Dreams S.p.A.

Sorin Group Italia S.r.l. (hereinafter LivaNova) is a medical technology and innovation company, a world leader in the development of cardiovascular and neuromodulation products and therapies. With decades of experience, LivaNova creates medical technologies capable of significantly improving the lives of patients, operating according to the highest quality standards and the highest level of business ethics.

Bio4Dreams S.p.A. (hereinafter Bio4Dreams) is an entirely privately funded certified incubator fully dedicated to very early stage innovative startups in Life Sciences. The company is focused on value creation starting from scientifically innovative entrepreneurial ideas that could improve people's quality of life, with the support of a broad and established network of national and international partners from the research, finance and enterprise world.

The partnership between LivaNova and Bio4Dreams aims at establishing a bilateral collaboration to promote meaningful innovation in Life Sciences.

LivaNova and Bio4Dreams undertake to mutually exchange entrepreneurial projects that could give rise to innovative startups of interest to LivaNova or that may need support on education, investments or other services provided by Bio4Dreams.

"Bio4Dreams is broadening its range of action and it is particularly important to establish partnerships and relationships with leading Life Sciences industrial partners. The partnership with LivaNova falls within this development strategy".

Elisabetta Borello, Co-Founder, VP Strategy & External Relations, Bio4Dreams

"LivaNova is committed to develop and support innovative medical technologies in the cardiovascular and neuromodulation fields and the partnership with Bio4Dreams aims at closing the gap between innovative start-ups and the industry".

Matthew J. Dodds, Senior Vice President of Corporate Development, LivaNova
